

Tenequa Wildy

Tenequa Wildy is currently employed by Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta as the Training Specialist for the Service Unit Support Team. In her role she supports and oversees the volunteer facilitator team that impacts the Girl Scout Mission by providing opportunities for knowledge growth and skill building amongst the adult and girl members of our council. As a facilitator she enjoys the “Ah-Ha” moments of learning and the experiential sharing of Girl Scouts members at large. In her downtime she debuts as “Thin Mint #7” playing catcher/short stop positions for Red Bottom Kickers (OffDaChain Kickball League); gardening and fishing. She is married with three children and two grandsons.
