

Dr. Tonya Howard Calhoun has a rich background in the nonprofit sector and an overwhelmingly deep passion for volunteerism. She has spent over 15 years in the field of volunteer management, utilizing her skills to create various resources, such as: volunteer handbooks, recruitment plans, training & development manuals, and program evaluation tools. She is the owner of Altruistically Yours (AY), a company specializing in volunteer management consultation. Tonya is currently the President of the Council of Volunteer Administrators for metro-Atlanta (COVA). She also serves on the Board for: Vertical Church Atlanta and the Nonprofit Trinity Awards. Tonya has facilitated Volunteer Management classes at Oglethorpe University and Coppin State University. She has also led trainings at the Whitney M. Young Leadership Conference, and the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance Conference. Tonya has been educated at Spelman College, Troy University, and The Thomas M. Cooley Law School. She most recently earned a PhD in Nonprofit Management & Leadership from Walden University. Tonya lives in Marietta, Ga. with her husband, Alzay.